'Rockwiz - Some Kind Of Genius Tour' – PRESS RELEASE

In 2010, the Rockwiz Team took to the road and played thirty-five shows in nineteen venues across this wide brown land. A rotating cavalcade of stars surprised and delighted packed houses from Hobart to Darwin, from Perth to Byron Bay. Contestants from the audience demonstrated amazing rock knowledge and performed Karaoke with the Rockwiz Orkestra. The critics raved ... and so did the punters ...

The night really "blew us away". We haven't laughed and smiled so much in ages. – Vic and Di, Port Pirie

We had a fabulous time - even better than the TV show as it lasts for 3 hours. – Deb, Dapto

My mum went to the Rockwiz concert in Toowoomba □ she said it was the best night of her life. – Daniel, Toowoomba

In 2012, they're doing it again and they can't wait to come to a venue near you! The 'Rockwiz - Some Kind Of Genius Tour' will play in state capitals and selected regional cities (including sacred musical sites like Sydney's Hordern Pavilion and Festival Hall in Melbourne) across Australia.

TICKETS ON SALE THURSDAY 14TH JUNE – 9AM

Expect the unexpected when the Rockwiz team unleashes its unique brand of energetic musical magic. High profile stars and up and coming artists will rub shoulders with contestants selected from the audience. The 'Rockwiz – Some Kind Of Genius Tour' is an extension of the television show, but bigger, bolder and braver. More guests! More songs! More questions! Freed from the constraints of a forty-minute television program recorded in a pub, watch the cast cut loose and revel in the freedom of the big stage.

The Rockwiz Team has been together, completely intact, since 2004, making what Andrew Denton recently called "Australia's most beloved music show". Julia Zemiro, the hottest TV hostess in the country. Brian Nankervis, the perfect co-host and ringmaster. The extraordinarily talented and experienced Rockwiz Orkestra and of course ... the human scoreboard, the housewife's choice, Dugald.

Roll up! Roll up! In fact, Rock up! For the 2012 'Rockwiz – Some Kind Of Genius Tour' ... Julia, Brian, the Rockwiz Orkestra and Dugald, legendary guests, curly questions, rock and roll trivia, rocking riffs and of course, rock brains from the audience who will amaze you with their knowledge and thrill you with their karaoke skills.

Don't miss out. As Mark and Michael said ...

Wondered how a 30 min TV show could be translated into a three hour live event. Without spoiling it for others, don't worry. Your money is well spent. Brian N could warm up a dentists' convention. The Orchestra live exceeds expectations, and I'd crawl over broken glass (and in fact, I think I did in my 20's) to hear some of the guest artists. Totally unfake. Totally fun. Mark from West Kentish

Rockwiz is so inclusive, it reminds me of a large family game of cricket at Christmas time. Everyone gets a turn to bat and bowl. You can't get out on the first ball. You have to run if you hit the ball, hit catches after 3 goes and you can only bowl underarm to the kids and nanna. – Michael from Canberra

FROM THE DESK OF DUGALD McANDREW

(Tour Manager)

Dear Brizer

Doogs here mate. I reckon we need to have a word. Things are out of control. Off the rails. Everyone's acting like prima donnas. On the last tour I was respected. My opinion was valued. I was sought out to give counsel. Now with a couple of weeks of a tour under their belt, the "artistes" (I use the term loosely) reckon they've got the caper sussed. You included.

Julia wants ABBA piped into her meditation/yoga room. Lucky is demanding only the brown M and Ms, Mark wants to travel in a chauffer driven Citroen 2CV and James is refusing to perform in venues without multiple baby Steinways. They all want slow cooked ox cheeks before the show and Heston Blumenthal's deep fried moss with truffle oil for supper! And Brian ... quite frankly, your exotic tea ceremony peccadillos are getting a little out of hand.

The Chisel tour was a walk in the park compared to this. All Don and Barnsie ask for is a bottle of passiona and a head band and as long as I get the muzzles on Mossy's cats, he's pretty relaxed. Have a word mate, have a word.

Doogs. Loading out somewhere.

PS: Festival Hall in Melbourne? Really?
